Community Chest Drive Now Only $4,938 from Goal

Teams, Donors Urged to Help In Final Push

$56,357 Collected In Cash, Pledges Encourages Leaders

Only $4,938 stands between Salem Community Chest workers and the first successful campaign in several years.

"We are so close to going over the top that I urgently request the solicitors, as well as donors, to do everything possible so that we can reach our objective," appealed the General Chairman, Robert Oswald.

Contributions and pledges — totaling $56,357 — now exceed last year.

"In fact, the amount is an all-time high for any fund drive," Mr. Oswald pointed out.

"What a credit to the community it would be if we could reach the quota within the next few days. We are so close we can't let it fail."

The chairman said that callbacks are being made by team workers.

The $56,357.73 on hand represents 92 per cent of the goal.

Six Teams Over Top

Six Chest teams now have exceeded their individual goals, with Team 8 (the chain stores) captained by Val Galieti and Ed Lautner, reaching $3,133 for 102 per cent yesterday.

Other teams topping their quotas were the executive group, the downtown businesses, schools, professional and suburban.

Today's team reports showed:

Executive, $28,605 for 109 per cent.

Small businesses, $1,064 for 87 per cent.

Clubs and organizations, $1,471 for 80 per cent.

Downtown Businesses, $3,358 for 110 per cent.

Schools, $1,647 for 134 per cent.

Industrial employes, $9,255 for 58 per cent.

Professional, $4,544 for 106 per cent.

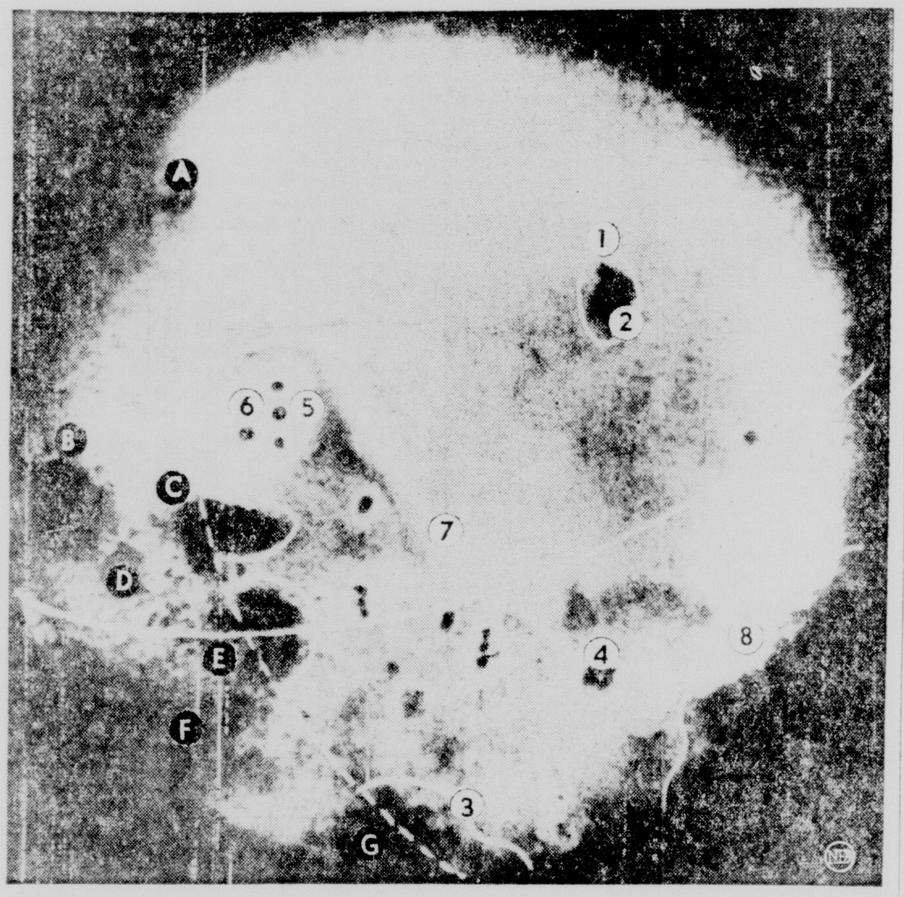

Automotive, $649 for 53 per cent.

Chain stores, $3,133 for 102 per cent.

Residential, $1,909 for 78 per cent.

Suburban, $728 for 117 per cent.

The Community Chest will assist next year's operations of 11 local "red feather" agencies, including the Salvation Army, Boy and Girl Scouts, Home For Aged Ladies, Catholic Charities, City Hospital and the Central Clinic, the Quaker City Band, the YWCA and the Memorial Building.

Russians Release Lunik III's Photos

Moon's Other Side Mostly Mountains

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union boasted today that Lunik III's history-making transmission of pictures of the hidden side of the moon heralds photographic surveys of the planets beyond.

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, said the successful operation of the space vehicle and its picture-taking apparatus "opens up broad prospects for studying the planets beyond."

A Soviet scientist, Vasiliy Lobastov, said Lunik's transmission of its moon shot "has inaugurated the most perfect method of studying planets—through rocket photography."

The world got its first look today at the far side of the moon. Photographs released Monday night indicate the area is covered mostly with mountains, Tass said, with only a few of the craters that pockmark the side the earth sees.

First reports indicated the hidden side of the earth's natural satellite was largely unmarked plains, "considerably more monotonous than the side turned toward the earth," as one announcement said.

Scientists in America and throughout the world hailed the Soviet photographs as a remarkable scientific achievement. Many said the pictures fitted in with their preconceived notions of the landscape of the moon's far side.

The Soviets lost no time naming visible features. They called a 180-mile wide depression north of the lunar equator "The Sea of Moscow." A bay in the southern part of the depression was named "The Bay of Astronauts."

A team of Soviet scientists also tagged six other landmarks. Scientists from many countries participated in naming the so-called seas, mountains and craters located on the moon's side facing the earth.

Moscow newspaper today carried detailed information on the design and operation of Lunik III, which was launched Oct. 4, took its pictures during a 40-minute period Oct. 7, then returned from its moon journey Oct. 18 to begin an orbit around the earth.

Tass said the 614-pound traveler was between 37,284 and 43,498 miles from the moon when its photographic equipment was switched on.

Snow, Rain Bring Chill To Midwest

By The Associated Press

Snow and rain and frosty weather which put a chill across most of the Midwest for the last few days spread into the Northeast today.

The snow belt extended from Minnesota across the upper Great Lakes region into northern New York state. Rain mixed with snow covered areas from Iowa eastward through the lower Great Lakes region.

Most of the snow melted as it touched the ground but two-inch falls covered the ground in sections of Minnesota, Wisconsin and upper Michigan. Strong northerly winds whipped the snow, creating hazardous driving conditions.

Light rain fell along the leading edge of the cold war mass from central New York and Pennsylvania southward along the western slopes of the Applachians. Thunderstorms rumbled across scattered sections of the west Gulf Coast from southern Louisiana to southern Texas. The heaviest rainfall during the night was in eastern Tennessee, with nearly one inch at Crossville. Showers were in prospect from the Virginias southward to northern Florida.

Temperatures dipped into the 20s as far south as northern Kansas as skies cleared over the northern and central plains.

Senior High Band To Hold Tag Day Friday for Funds

The Salem Band Mothers Club will sponsor a "tag day" for the benefit of the Senior High School band Friday.

The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Albert Johnson, Mrs. Richard Albright and Mrs. James Ivan.

The band, with a membership of 58 students, will solicit donations in the downtown section all day Friday, and some residential sections also will be canvassed.

Funds collected on tag day and money earned from benefit projects sponsored by Band Mothers are the only maintenance funds for the band.

The School Board is prohibited by state law from spending money on uniforms for the band.

Funds collected are used for alterations and repairs to uniforms, for purchasing additional uniforms as needed, to supplement school funds in purchasing new instruments and to provide transportation for the band to contests and concerts.

Officers of the Band Mothers Club are: President, Mrs. Ronald Whipkey; vice president, Mrs. David Keller; treasurer, Mrs. Richard Albright; and secretary, Mrs. George Gottschling.

The fair will be held the week of March 5.

Youth Acquitted In Murder Trial

Cleveland Judges Confer 9½ Hours

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dallas E. Milam is a free man today—winner in an appeal from a life sentence in Ohio Penitentiary in the killing of a police lieutenant here Dec. 9, 1957.

The 20-year-old Beckley, W. Va. youth was acquitted shortly before midnight Monday of two charges of first-degree murder. The verdict followed a six-day trial before Judges Benjamin D. Nicola William K. Thomas and Roy F. McMahon of the common pleas bench.

The judges deliberated 9 hours. Sheriff Joseph M. Sweeney said it was the longest deliberation by a panel of judges in the 17 years he has been in office.

Milam, convicted in April 1958, by three other judges, ran forward and tried to shake the hand of Judge Thomas when the verdict was announced. The judge declined, saying: "That won't be necessary."

An appeals court had held that Milam's conviction on the first-degree murder charges, with recommendation of mercy, was contrary to the weight of the evidence.

Essentially, the panel which acquitted Miliam Monday night saw it the same way. They held that Milam, 18 at the time of the crime, was an "unwilling and frightened accomplice" in the robbery that led to the fatal shooting of Police Lt. Edward G. Lentz.

The weight of evidence, the judges held, was that Milam had submitted quietly to arrest and was sitting in his car when Robert L. Lyons bolted from that car and fired a bullet into Lentz's

Political Rally Held In East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — A non-partisan political rally was held Monday night at the high school, under the sponsorship of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

All candidates for municpal offices except two were present.

Kenneth Bell, Columbiana County auditor, spoke on the need for a new county home, and urged all voters to visit the home before election day.

Atty. Frank W. Springer, president of the Board of Education spoke on the school levies, which included a renewal of a 4-mill tax and a new levy of three-mills.

Springer referred to the levies as the "bread and butter" levies, which are vital for the continued operation of the school.

Robert Harding and Homer Freer, mayoralty candidates presented their platforms, followed by a question and answer period.

Alliance Man Cited After Car Severs Pole

Castro Level's Strong Tirade Against U.S.

Thousands Cheer Cuban Premier at Rally In Havana

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro angrily promised a wildly cheering crowd of several hundred thousand Monday night to once again hand over the enemies of his revolution to military tribunals and firing squads.

In a fiery speech of more than three hours, devoted largely to his most violent anti-American tirade yet, Castro also:

1. Gave a strong hint his government may try to drive the United States from its naval base at Guantanamo in southeastern Cuba.

2. Said Cuba will buy airplanes anywhere — apparently meaning from the Communist bloc — if its overtures to buy jets from Britain fail.

3. Virtually signed the death warrant of Maj. Hubert Matos former commander of the armed forces in Camaguey province and key figure in the latest government crisis.

"Firing squads Firing squads!" the crowd roared as Castro asked them to approve the execution of Matos, who accused the regime of going Communist.

Then Castro replied: "Because it is necessary to defend our nation against aggression, to defend it from aerial attacks from foreign bases, the cabinet will meet tomorrow to discuss and decree for the time necessary the re-establishment of military tribunals."

He asked and received a roaring approval for executions by firing squads if necessary.

It was a repetition of "Operation Truth," the public rally Castro drummed up last January when the speedy executions of so-called war criminals were being severely criticized abroad.

But there was one big difference. In January at least a million persons turned out. The Prime Minister called for the same turnout Monday, but estimates of the crowd varied between 250,000 and 400,000. By the time he finished speaking, half his audience was gone.

Castro electrified the crowd with an announcement that a plane—which he implied came from Flo-

Steel Strike Cost Up In Mahoning

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — The steel strike cost the Mahoning County Welfare department $708,535 up to this week, Welfare Director Isadore L. Feuer reported Monday. He said 3,413 cases, involving 16,516 persons, have received help.

The Youngstown-Warren steel-producing district has about 55,000 steelworkers.

In Warren W. S. Wike, Trumbull County welfare director, reported that the steel strike had sent the number of relief cases up by 1,818. He said there were 499 cases before the strike and 2,317 now.

Trumbull County has been financing relief on a deficit basis and its expenditures for the purpose will total a half-million dollars, Wike said. Feuer estimated Mahoning County's relief fund would be $200,000 in the red by Nov. 1.

Warren's city income tax department estimated the steel strike has cost the city $56,000 in income taxes and that the amount will increase by about $5,000 each week of the strike.

C. of C. Sets Urban-Farm Day

Need Explained for Off-Street Parking

The need for additional off-street parking in the downtown area was outlined by Robert McCulloch Jr., president of Salem Parking, Inc., at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday noon at the Lape Hotel.

McCulloch presented the following advantages of such parking facilities: They would maintain and further retail and service trade in the area; encourage additional businesses to occupy vacant downtown buildings and retain the present retail establishments; bolster the downward spiral of real estate values in the downtown area; and stimulate a general dressing up of the area.

The Salem Parking Inc. is a C of C organization comprised of 10 downtown businessmen. In addition to McCulloch, the other members are: Charles Haldi, vice president; Elliott Hansell, secretary; Thomas Howett, treasurer; Horace Schwartz, Herbert Gordon, Val Galieti, Alden Gross, Edward Lautner and Alfred Fitch.

The group, which is working with City Council on the project, reports it has received 100 per cent cooperation. The members have contacted 70 businesses and received 75 per cent in pledges of financial support of the program.

Until details have been worked out, no funds will be solicited. Completion of the project will take an estimated six to nine months.

Chamber President Walter Null reported that the agriculture committee has set Nov. 18 for the urban-farm day for the Salem area.

Price Increases Still Uncertain

Kaiser Pact May Be Big Break In Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The strike-ending pact signed by the Kaiser Steel Corp. and the United Steelworkers Union left uncertain today whether steel price increases by the company may follow later.

Dramatically breaking the steel industry's united front, Kaiser made its own lone wolf peace with the union Monday, the 104th day of the walkout. The signing could prove to be the big break in the costly industry-wide strike.

Kaiser hopes to be producing steel again at its Fontana, Calif., plant in about five days. Some 500 of its workers were called back to their jobs Monday night and nearly 1,200 others were due back today.

The Kaiser firm—ninth largest in the industry—and the union called the settlement noninflationary. They said the agreement was "designed to work for the best interests of management, the employes and the public."

Neither the company nor the union gave an overall dollar estimate on what the settlement would cost Kaiser. But some sources said privately it probably would amount to 3½ million dollars over the life of the new contract which will be in effect for 20 months—until June 30, 1961.

The pact provides new fringe benefits amounting to 10 cents an hour per worker starting Nov. 1. These include more liberal insurance, pension and supplemental unemployment benefits. Work rule changes will be settled later.

In the second year, there will be a 7 cents an hour pay raise wrapped into benefits guessed at 12½ cents an hour for the company's 7,500 to 8,500 workers.

Steel companies in the past have used increased labor costs as an argument for boosting steel prices.

Edgar F. Kaiser, board chairman of Kaiser Steel, was asked by newsmen about possible price

U.S. Steel Report on Earnings Due

New York (AP) — The nation's biggest steel maker, United States Steel Corp., today tells the world how much money it is losing as a result of the steel strike.

Several other companies, completely shut down by the strike, have reported huge losses. Some smaller companies, not shut down by the strike, have reaped sharply higher profits.

This is the regular date for U.S. Steel directors to meet and issue the third quarter earnings report. It will be announced shortly after the New York Stock Exchange closes.

For all but two weeks in the third quarter, the company's steel plants were completely shut down. It is remotely possible, but highly unlikely, that the loss on steel was made up by income from cement operations or investments.

Salaries, taxes, depreciation, all sorts of costs go on even when steel plants aren't operating. The results in the third quarter this year will contrast with a net income of $74,922,924 in the same period last year.

The last time U.S. Steel had a net loss during a three - month period was in the third quarter of 1938. Its loss in that recession period was $5,847,790.

The largest loss for any quarter came in the great depression. It was $20,871,709 in the third quarter of 1932.

Leetonia Man Cited After Crash Here

Earl F. Mathey, 26, of Leetonia was arrested for reckless operation after his car struck the rear of another vehicle stopped for a traffic light on E. State St. at N. Union Ave. at 10:30 a.m. Monday.

Mathey told police he passed out just before the crash and could not remember what happened.

John G. Sutherland, 59, of Waynesburg, driver of the station wagon which the Mathey car struck, was treated at City Hospital for a neck injury.

Each car received considerable damage.

Decision of 3 Judges Is Due This Afternoon

Steel's Solid Front Broken by Kaiser's Pact With Union

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The record 105-day steel strike, its obstinateness cracked slightly by a Kaiser Steel Corp. agreement with the United Steelworkers, headed for another showdown today in federal court.

The U.S. 3rd Circuit Court of appeals will announce at 4 p. m. whether the 500,000 striking steelworkers must return to work for 80 days under a Taft-Hartley injunction or may continue their strike.

The ruling, however, will not be released until about 4:45 p. m. because appellate courts here usually wait until after the country's stock markets close to hand down decisions which affect stock prices.

Meanwhile, 7,500 Kaiser employes returned to work at plants in California under a new agreement which will be in force until June 30, 1961.

Kaiser, the nation's ninth biggest producer, pierced the industry's solid front Monday night by signing a separate peace with the union after nearly five hours of behind-doors negotiations in Washington.

But the other 11 big companies said Kaiser's defection would not affect their determination to resist what they termed an inflationary settlement.

The new contract calls for an added 10 cents in fringe benefits for the first year and 12½ cents more the second year, including a 7-cents-an-hour pay boost. Company officials declined to say what Kaiser workers made before the strike began. The industry-wide average was $3.11 an hour.

Union committees resumed talks in Pittsburgh this morning with 12 steel companies. Similar meetings with other firms also were sheculed again in various parts of the country.

Companies participating in the Pittsburgh sessions were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, Jones & Laughlin, Inland, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Armco Allegheny

Red Budget Is Largest In History

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government today unveiled the biggest budget in its history, with spending increased for almost everything except defense.

Deputy Finance Minister Vasilli Garbuzov told 1,335 members of the Supreme Soviet — the nation's parliament — that revenue would be 772,100,000,000 rubles and expenditures 744,800,000,000 rubles, leaving a surplus of 27,300,000,000 rubles.

Defense expenditures were set at 96,100,000,000 rubles — exactly the same as last year, which means the percentage of the budget devoted to defense has actually been reduced.

At the official exchange rate, the ruble is worth 25 cents. But it is difficult to fix the exact defense expenditure since some military items may be listed under civilian categories. Rocket research, for example, may come under the heading of scientific research.

The total government expenditure also is misleading to westerners. Under the Communist system of government ownership of all production and distribution facilities, the budget includes economic costs which are usually the burden of private corporations in non-Communist countries.

Lisbon Man Injured In Truck Accident

Dale H. Holshue, 44, of RD 1, Lisbon, was hurt at 1:50 p.m. on Monday when he lost control of his pick-up truck which went off Route 62, just north of the Columbiana County line.

Holshue was treated by his family physician for a neck injury, lacerations of the fingers and abrasions of the left thigh.

The Mahoning County Highway Patrol said Holshue was traveling north when his truck plowed through a guard rail and plunged over a small bridge. Extensive damage was done to the truck.

Senator May File In California

Friends Urge Kennedy To Challenge Brown

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some friends reportedly are urging Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) to challenge Gov. Edmund G. Brown in the California primary in an effort to nail down the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Brown has told all of the party's presidential hopefuls in unmistakable language to stay out of California's June 7 presidential primary. He has said he wants to head a unified delegation as a favorite son.

California law would bind the 81-vote delegation to the primary winner until two-thirds of the state delegates decided to change.

Brown has left open his own availability for top place on the ticket.

There is a growing belief among Kennedy's friends that Brown feels that if his party wants a Roman Catholic as its No. 1 nominee it ought to take a look at him as well as at the Massachusetts senator.

Among Kennedy's friends in California there is also the feeling that Brown would not be invincible if the senator should decide to make an all-out campaign in the primary.

Some of these supporters believe Kennedy may be faced with the necessity of making some such bold move if he is to go into the July convention in Los Angeles with a lead which would make it difficult for opponents to put together a stop-Kennedy movement.

Kennedy already is studying the possibility of challenging Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's favorite son ambitions in Ohio. But some of Kennedy's advisers believe that even if he on primaries in states like New Hampshire, Ohio, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Oregon he wouldn't have the 756 votes needed for the nomination.

Their theory is that he needs to crack open the big state lineup that could be formed against him if California, Pennsylvania and New York all held out and the South stayed largely with Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex).

Texas Town Gets Molasses Paving

EAGLE PASS, Tex. (AP) — A tank truck popped wide open, spilled 275,000 gallons of molasses and gummed up three blocks of a dirt street here Monday.

"It was the fastest, sweetest paving job Eagle Pass ever had," quipped one city official.

The Southwestern Sugar and Molasses Co., estimated its loss at $100,000.

City employes couldn't wash away the sticky molasses. They used a dump truck to haul in rocky soil and cover over the syrup.

South Carolina Still Feeling Gracie's Effects

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — South Carolina may be feeling the effects of Hurricane Gracie for years to come.

The State Forestry Commission said Monday the storm that hit the state Sept. 29 felled an esimated 500,000 trees, representing a potential loss of 10 million dollars to timber and pulpwood interests. Thousands of pecan trees also were blown over.

The commission said hordes of insects that have moved into the damaged trees pose a greater threat than the sorm damage itself if they are allowed to attack healthy trees next spring.

Leak is in charge of reassembling fragments of the craft in a Dallas warehouse. He made clear Monday that the bomb possibility has not been ruled out completely.

The Braniff Electra disintegrated 15,000 feet in the air during a night flight from Houston to Dallas Sept. 29.

New Benefit Rates Based On Claimant's Base Period

This is the second of a series of articles, prepared for The News by the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation (BUC), outlining principal changes in Ohio's Unemployment Compensation Law.

Key to the following questions is contained in the unemployment compensation claimant's work history throughout his base period—which is always the last four completed calendar quarters ending before the application is filed.

Base period for those applying for benefits between now and Jan. 1, 1960, will be the last quarter of 1958 and the first three quarters of 1959.

Q. Am I eligible to receive benefits?

A. You are eligible, and your application will be allowed if (1) you are unemployed and (2) you have worked in covered employment in 20 weeks and received $240 in wages in your base period.

Q. How much can I get in weekly benefits?

A. Benefits in Ohio range from $10 to $42 weekly. The exact amount will depend upon your total wages (gross) received in the highest-paid calendar quarter of your base period. Thus, if you received $550 in your high quarter ($50-aweek average), your weekly benefit will be $27; if your wage amounted to $971 or more ($75-week average), your weekly benefit will be $38. If you received at least $1,091 in your high quarter (averaging a little more than $84 weekly), you will receive the maximum of $42 weekly.

Your benefits are computed on the basis of a benefit rate schedule provided by law. The old maximum benefit of $33 was based on high quarter wages of $821 or over (a minimum average of about $63 weekly). The amended law has extended the benefit rate schedule to provide an additional $1 in weekly benefits for each additional $30 in wages up to a new maximum of $42 for wages of $1091 or more in the high quarter.

Q. How long may I receive benefits?

A. You may receive 26 times your weekly benefit (maximum 26 times $42 or $1,092). Your total benefits, however, cannot exceed the wages paid by all your employers in the base period.

NEXT: Dependency allowances.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

In the most rarefied reaches of American business, in the deepest of inner sanctums, a group of industrialists meet from time to time to carry out a decision they made some two years ago.

That decision sprang from their belief that they had been pushed around too long by big labor. They decided to take one big strike in each major industry. They decided to make an offer, stand pat and then prove that there is no law, no force which can tell the business people how to run "their own businesses."

These men are not all conservative. Nor are they liberal. The group is not Republican or Democrat.

They are businessmen who believe it is their right to take labor on in the fashion labor has taken them on since 1937.

Labor has organized joint councils to take on an industry or a major corporation. So industry decided to team up in each field.

THE BUSINESSMEN are not anti-union. They do not want to smash unions, crack them or bankrupt them.

There are few among the industrialists who believe that the workers do not need a union. But most of the group — an informal fraternity — believe that today's mass industries require unions to keep the huge working forces of modern giant plants under some responsible leadership.

Thus the steel struggle is but one battle in the war. U.S. Steel is up front in this skirmish because that corporation's executives took the slings and arrows of outraged businessmen for years.

U.S. Steel was the first to give—unless Bethlehem Steel gave first. Thus you find right alongside U.S. Steel's Roger Blough, Bethlehem Steel's Arthur Homer.

For years the word was that as steel goes so goes the nation's wage spiral. And when steel gave, businessmen everywhere groaned.

This time, when the steel executives decided on a united front, they meant it.

FOR EXAMPLE, more than a month ago, the steel union virtually had a new wage pact signed with a big can company. This was arranged during the height of the tense negotiations with the 12 big steel corporations. Dave McDonald and counselor Arthur Goldberg were jubilant. Though cans are not steel, a contract in an affiliated industry would have set some kind of pattern. Both sides were ready to sign the contract.

The 12 big steel firms were grapevined swiftly. Then the head of the great continent - spanning can company telephoned the steel union leaders. The deal was off because the pressure was on him not to yield to the union at this time. The union agreed to extend the can contract.

Now watch what happens when the 500,000 steel strikers return to work. The steel executives will stand just as solid on their right to run their plants.

If there are slowdowns, delays or disobedience, there will be quick firing of those responsible. If this results in wildcat strikes, the companies will shut down their plants.

IF THE MEN are working under a Taft Hartley injunction, the industry position will be: It's now up to the government to act under the Taft-Hartley injunction which says there must be no interference "in any manner" with orderly operations.

The government would then have to go to national steel union leader Dave McDonald and direct him to order his men back to work at the usual speed of production.

But it will all be temporary. For if there is no union compromise on the past practices work rules clause, the industry will not budge. There will be another walkout in January. The men are solidly behind McDonald.

Then President Eisenhower will go to Congress for new powers, as he must under the T-H law. He probably won't get them. But he has other ways to start the industry functioning again.

What he hasn't got is the solution for such crises. Only the industry and labor leaders can find such a solution. Unfortunately, this won't be found while the nation is rocked by a wave of strikes right through 1960.

Afterwards will come the time for mind over muscle.

Smith for Mayor

Nearly two years have passed since Harold D. Smith, a Republican, was elected to his first term as Salem's mayor.

Those two years have not been crowded with epochal achievements but they have been marked by a city administration that has been a credit to the community.

Mayor Smith has lent dignity and integrity to City Hall and has been active in civic affairs while carrying out the responsibilities of his own office. His leadership has commanded the respect of many.

It would be unfortunate if he were not returned to office for another term and The Salem News heartily endorses him for re-election next Tuesday.

His opponent is Dean B. Cranmer, Democrat, who lost the voters' confidence when he was mayor prior to Mr. Smith's election.

Because of limited funds, Mayor Smith has not been able to carry out all of the programs he had hoped to, but that is no reflection on him personally. Even in the face of a stringent economy, he has been able to provide good services in the various municipal departments.

He has cooperated well with City Council.

He has been and still is working with the Salem Area Industrial Corporation in the SAIDC's efforts to attract new industries.

He has succeeded in getting a commitment from the State Highway Department for completion of the Pidgeon Road south bypass during the next biennium.

He and Council were successful in having the state resurface all of the state highways inside the corporate limits this summer.

All in all, we think he has done a remarkable job, and the experience he has gained will contribute to an even more successful administration in the next two years.

Everybody Talks About Peace

The word "peace" has been worn threadbare by those who use it sincerely and left empty of meaning by those with no sincerity in them.

It should be given a rest.

While it is on the shelf, more exact words and phrases would be used to describe the thoughts now concealed and revealed by "peace."

"Surrender" would come into use to reveal the true intentions of those who mean there could be peace if their opponents would quit resisting them.

"Capitulation" could be used to convey the thought that threats of war would cease if all weak nations now asking embarrasing questions about the intentions of strong nations would cease being curious and swallow wahtever version of "peace" was spoon-fed to them.

"Conversion" would be the precise word for the thought that war could be averted if all differences of opinion were dissolved in conviction that troublemakers ultimately would prevail, so why not yield to their doctrines early and get in on the ground floor?

Even for those who need not apologize for talking about "peace," because they have peace in their hearts, there would be benefit from using a more exact word.

They do not believe peace ever can flow out of the universal goodness of mankind, because they know mankind is not universally good.

When they talk about peace, they are talking about a condition attainable if all men of good will were banded together in such a way that men of bad will could not challenge their right to live in peace.

They are talking about worldwide law and law enforcement—the grand dream of the League of Nations and the United Nations.

They are talking about cooperative security guaranteed by cooperative police action.

They are thinking more of the lion than of the lamb. They are more interested in becoming their brother's strong keeper than in being kept in a state of helplessness that would be called "peace" only in the sense it was remote from the crashing strife of the world outside.

Inmates of institutions, animals in zoos and the inhabitants of puppet nations that have lost the right of self-determination have such peace; they think of it as captivity. "Captivity" is another precise word to denote the kind of peace that is in the minds of some of the moderns who talk about it.

Hitler talked about peace. So did Mussolini and the savage plotters of Japanese supremacy. Khrushchev talks about it and De Gaulle and Adenauer and Macmillan and Eisenhower. Also the Red Chinese and the Chinese who are not red. They all mean something different.

The word has lost its meaning. It should be shelved and more accurate words substituted. The result would be a revelation.

Will Matthews

Salem had no better booster than W. H. Matthews, who died Sunday night at the age of 86 after a life that led him in many notable pursuits.

He had been a school teacher, a business college professor, a leading Ohio horticulturist, a land appraiser, a musician, city councilman, traveler, historian, tax consultant, photographer, and public speaker.

Sounds like we're talking about more than one person but that was Will Matthews, beloved and admired by the many persons who were fortunate to know him.

He was secretary when Salem observed its centennial back in 1906. He was active in civic affairs until recent years and served two terms in City Council. He once wrote a history of Ohio agriculture. He had motored across the continent many times, his last at the age of 80, gathering information for historical lectures which always were illustrated by pictures he had taken. Clubs and other organizations eagerly awaited his return.

But everywhere Will went, near home or afar, he always told of that "wonderful city in eastern Ohio" he called home. Salem has never had a better booster. It has lost one of its solid citizens.

County Health Levy

Because public health is a major problem in the rural areas where city sanitation services are not available, Columbiana County voters ought to approve the two-tenths mill levy which will be on the Nov. 3 ballots.

The levy lost last year and as a result the County Health Department was forced to cut down on its personnel and curtail some of its normal services.

The County Health Department, now headed by efficient, capable Dr. C. S. Palmer, is functioning well in the face of limited funds but the services the county district are entitled to can not be offered unless operating funds are forthcoming. The two-tenths of a mill levy (for five years) will provide it.

Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The art museum built with Guggenheim millions from a Frank Lloyd Wright tradition-busting design is now a New York attraction causing many arguments.

The odd building have some features of an amusement park House of Fun, a roller coaster and a giant corkscrew with multiple pie crusts, brings, cries of "What's that?" from courtless Fifth ave. visitors.

Current gag is, "Was Wright trying to kill art or architecture?"

MORTIMER TOPBLOWER has been to the Museum and thinks the architect designed it whole doing a head spin.

He thinks the architect must have executed it from the original idea by the Tilyou Brothers of Coney Island, with occasional suggestions from Billy Rose, the Eggbeater Corporation of America and the National Society Opposed to Viewing Paintings except on Toboggan Sleds.

"I am no expert art critic and this building proves I have even more trouble judging paintings while going around curves," says Mr. Topblower.

"I got the impression either the paintings were hung on a slant or I was. I felt like an ant trying to find my way around a pretzel, which is no way to appreciate art.

"I was only up one flight before I wanted to make the ground floor exit by roller skates. It is the only place in New York where a man can qualify for the roller skate derby and artistic knowledge at one and the same time.

"I ask you how can a man appreciate masterpieces when he has to concentrate on hill-climbing and ring-around-a-rosy.

I still think Frank Lloyd Wright, who has done some wonderful things, was just testing public sense of amazement when he designed this one."

Mr. Topblower took some pills and explained, "I only went around once but I am still dizzy. If you want my candid opinion they might as well hang pictures at the new Aqueduct track and I would favor it on account of an art lover would get a longer and straighter stretch run."

Remember away back when nobody would even think of giving mother or sister razor blades for Christmas?

Judge Herbert Peter Sorg is a baseball fan and may think that the Taft-Hartley Act called for a clear decision on the question, "Who's on first?"

The United States is getting resignations of so many Canaveral chiefs that it seems the missile chiefs are exploding as prematurely as the rockets.

A 15-year-old kid brought a homemade dynamite bomb to school. Is this an era when Johnny brings teacher a PINEAPPLE?

Nelson Rockefeller hasn't exactly put his hat in the ring. But he is demonstrating a bonnet in orbit around an ambition.

In quiz probe developments TV is knocking off more people than its cowboy films are.

Althea Gibson and Karol Fageros, famed gal tennis champs, have turned pro and will appear with Harlem Globetrotters basketball team. We hope this won't lead to tennis cuties being benched for personal fouls.

Chris Rasmussen, whose daughter married into the Rockefeller family, came over for a visit, working as a member of a ship's crew. Well, Nelson is a seaman, too, in a sense. He "barges" around a lot these days, is featured as a channel attraction and seems to know how to chart a course from the Hudson River to the Potomac.

Khrushchev is to visit Paris. Will he show up in an artist's smock?

Associated Newspapers

"I Had No Idea H e Was So Heavy"

International Smog Is Back

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Anyone bothered by the feeling the international air was getting too clear for comfort can breathe easier now. The smog is coming back. Things are getting to be their old fouled-up selves again.

It was like watching the departure of a busy tugboat, leaving behind a phosphorescent wake, when Premier Nikita Khrushchev barged away from here last September. He left behind a kind of glow.

The dark and sinister waters of the world seemed a little brighter if only temporarily. There was a feeling, perhaps only a hope, that maybe now things would get smoothed out a bit, and better.

And maybe they will. But just recently there was new evidence that for anyone who loves to see things get fouled up, this is a very wonderful world.

For example: It was generally understood that Khrushchev's meeting with President Eisenhower would be followed, sooner or later, by a summit meeting between Eisenhower, Khrushchev, and the heads of the British and French governments. The only question left was when.

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan favored a summit meeting all along. The sooner the better seemed to be his motto. Eisenhower reportedly had suggested to the Allies that it be held in December.

But last week President Charles de Gaulle of France held out for a meeting not before spring, with a big if attached: If the world climate has improved by spring. That leaves the door wide open for de Gaulle to back out of any time he pleases.

Since word also came from Paris Wednesday that Khrushchev may visit de Gaulle in January, the possibility for snafu increased immeasureably. De Gaulle isn't easy to get along with. And Khrushchev can be difficult.

If they don't get along, will De Gaulle want a summit meeting at all? And between now and spring a lot of things can happen to kill the whole idea of a summit meeting.

Then there's the question of disarmament and Red China. While here Khrushchev talked in such a hearty way about the possibility of world disarmament that no one was quite simple enough to buy the package wholesale.

It was good propaganda for the Soviet Union but there are a million details in disarmament and they have to be agreed on before there is any. No one expected it to happen soon, anyway.

And right in the middle of the disarmament notion was an enormous question: What about Red China? The Chinese Communists are armed. But the United States refuses to recognize them as the legitimate government of China.

Further, this country doesn't even think they're fit to be in the United Nations. Still further, the Red Chinese have vowed to take Formosa away from the Nationalist Chinese of Chiang Kai-shek, an American ally.

They can't do that without guns. And what good would any agreement on disarmament with the Soviet Union do if the Red Chinese stayed armed? But how can we make an agreement with them if we refuse to recognize them as a government?

These were all questions that couldn't be pushed under the rug. And Secretary of State Christian A. Herter even said this country holds the Soviet Union responsible in some degree for the actions of Red China.

If he really sticks to that, then things are really messed up. Late finally the State Department said Red China shows no sign of abandoning its announced intention to use force, if necessary, to take Formosa.

This news was issued after it became known that Khrushchev had sent Eisenhower a letter dealing with Red China. The letter said Moscow supports the Communist Chinese claim to Formosa.

Unnoticed Event

By TRUMAN TWILL

An event has passed without much notice the centenary of John Dewey's birth, on Oct. 20. I am surprised to learn that Dewey lived until 1952. It seems longer ago than that when he died. And people who hated his ideas about education got in one last sniff of contempt.

His life has been interesting to me, because it has seemed to me to be an example of something that plays tricks on mankind.

Everybody knows that Dewey shook up education by challenging educational practices that had been carried over from the Middle Ages. That is a dangerous thing to do. It proved dangerous for him.

People who preferred the way education was carried on by authoritarian Europeans in the Middle Ages beat him to an academic pulp with their outraged sense of propriety. But they were not the ones who hurt him most . . .

He was hurt most by people who said they were his followers.

They were like the followers of other revolutionists who were not so much followers as revolutionists, themselves, stringing along behind someone willing to fire the first shot. It happens all the time.

It is happening to Fidel Castro right now, but that is another line of thought. John Dewey's so-called "followers" lost sight of most of what he was trying to do, because they were carried away with their own belief in what they were trying to do.

Chiefly, what they were trying to do was to find a way to escape the mental discipline that differentiates the well-trained and well-filled mind from the mind that contains nothing but fragments of information and scraps and pieces of other people's thinking.

Dewey was trying to teach men how to live in a new kind of world—the industrial civilization that flowered during his lifetime. Many people who pretended to be following him were trying to teach men how to live in a world that never had existed before and which exists now only in a shadowland where the mumble-jumble and sleep-walkers carry on a nightmare existence. They are "out of this world."

I never understood Deweyism; all I know is that it had a tremendous impact and that not all the impact was harmful, despite the bleatings and blastings of diehards who still want to go all the way back to the Middle Ages for their academic precepts.

I do understand what happened to John Dewey, however—how his followers turned into his enemies because they neither understood nor tried to understand what he was talking about.

There never has been a significant revolution in history that did not end the same way. It does not mean, though, that the revolution is to blame, or the revolutionist who leads it.

It means only that people who jump into turmoil, hoping to do some revolutionizing on their own, are a pain in the outstretched neck of progress.

Liberators lock up their enemies.

Those pleading for tolerance turn intolerant.

Wealth distributors collect feathers for their own nests.

Liberals switch to reaction.

Emancipators enslave the helpless.

Advocates of brotherly love hate the opposition.

Not all of them, to be sure, but enough to give the revolution a dirty name. It happens to John Dewey, but not necessarily because he was wrong. His followers, like the followers of Marx—to pick one name at random—had ideas of their own they wanted to try out while things were in turmoil. I've often wondered if Dewey forgave them.

Steel Union Case

By DAVID LAWRENCE

USW Not Referred to as 'Extremists'

Nobody accused them of flouting the Constitution or of undermining the courts — and nobody called them "extremists" either—and yet the Steelworkers Union argued before the federal courts the other day that no law of the land exists which can justly order them back to work in the steel industry.

David Lawrence

The Steelworkers have every right to challenge the validity of the Taft-Hartley Act, as they have done and to point out that the issuance of an injunction ordering them back to work would not be constitutional "because it vests in the courts a non-judicial function."

This is on a par with what Gov. Faubus and other Southerners claimed about the injunctions ordering them to reopen schools that had been closed by state law.

The school officials who fought the injunctions in the courts said that administrative duties in the handling of education were not vested in the federal judiciary.

The South, in their cases, advanced also the argument that no law has ever been passed by Congress to carry out the interpretation which the Supreme Court of the United States in 1954 read into the 14th Amendment.

THE STEELWORKERS Union, while conceding that the law known as the Taft-Hartley Act is in the main constitutional and that Congress has the power to forbid or sanction strikes under certain circumstances, argues that the courts cannot perform legislative functions.

This has a familiar ring, as the same objection was voiced by the Southern lawyers before the federal courts in the segregation cases.

The Steelworkers' lawyers declare, moreover — just as did the lawyers for the Southern school boards — that once an injunction is issued, it must be obeyed but this doesn't make it constitutional unless the Supreme Court itself sustains the ruling.

The Steelworkers' lawyers contend that there is at present no justiciable controversy before the courts in the steel strike and that no rights and duties were prescribed in the law by Congress.

Indeed, the union representatives argue that what is before the court is solely an economic controversy for which Congress itself has prescribed no remedy or formula of settlement.

It so happens that the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit did decide this issue in 1953 but the case never went before the Supreme Court of the United States because the strike in that instance was thereupon settled.

THE CIRCUIT COURT however, said in its opinion at the time:

"Although the jurisdiction to grant an injunction is thus limited and its issuance is by statute designed to make possible further efforts to settle the dispute without work stoppage, the function of the court is not administrative but judicial, just as it that of an appellate court when it reviews and enforces an order of the National Labor Relations Board. The court then acts in aid of the settlement of a labor dispute and so it does here but in each instance it performs judicial functions. . . .

"The instant act makes an actual or threatened strike or lockout of the kind described in Section 208 something which at least for a period may be prohibited. The prohibition of strikes or lockouts under given circumstances implies that they are, under such circumstances, an invasion of the rights of the public.

"Whether it is the duty of the court to grant an injunction depends upon findings of fact to be made by the court as the statute requires. The statute creates the right on the part of the public to be protected from the danger of such a strike or lockout. Whether there is an existing or threatened strike or lockout which, under the statute, is an invasion of the rights of the public presents the usual kind of case or controversy which is justiciable by a court."

THE STEELWORKERS Union, in its legal presentation, makes the further point that the law provides for a court injunction only where a strike "if permitted to occur or to continue, will imperil the national health or safety" and that the law says nothing about economic hardship being an "emergency."

The Taft Hartley Act specifies that the president must proclaim that he finds an emergency exists before the court may issue an injunction.

The executive branch has already furnished to the courts certain facts that indicate things can get much worse in the nation if the steel strike is not checked now.

The courts have heretofore recognized in other cases that, where "a clear and present danger" exists, it is not necessary to wait for the consummation of a catastrophe before acting.

So the unions are up against it—judging by the way the Supreme Court of the United States in recent years has broadened the injunction power to cause the administration of the public schools in several states to be supervised by the federal judiciary even where no law on the subject has been passed by Congress.

Dollar Can Be Embarassing

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—A dollar can be so strong as to be embarrassing too.

Americans who fret because some Europeans are wondering out loud if the U. S. dollar isn't weakening can take heart today in the word that many Canadians complain that the Canadian dollar is too strong.

It sells at a premium of more than five cents over the American dollar. And that, say our northern neighbors, is bad for business—their business.

And those Americans who have been alarmed lest the United States was pricing itself out of the world market may be comforted somewhat to hear that some Canadians complain that goods can be bought cheaper here than there and that, too, is bad for business—their business.

The American dollar situation arises because the total of what we pay foreigners for their products plus what we extend in the form of foreign aid and what we spend abroad on upkeep of military bases and the like—that total exceeds the amount we get for what we sell to other countries.

Hence, other lands have built up their reserves of gold—by buying it from us—and their dollar reserves by putting them in high interest bearing U. S. securities. This makes their currencies look much better than they did a few years back.

It hasn't really weakened the American dollar yet—despite the big outflow of our gold—but it hasn't strengthened it either, by a long shot.

The Canadian situation is a bit different. They still buy more from us than they sell us. This normally would make our dollar stronger than theirs. But in recent years, American dollars have been flowing into Canada in the form of investments, making the overall balance all in favor of the Canadian dollar, and thus putting it at a premium over the American one.

Still another reason for the Canadian dollar's premium status is advanced by speakers at the convention of the Canadian Exporters Assn.

They say the borrowing by Canadian provinces and municipalities in the United States is partly to blame.

Putting the blame, at least in part, on the borrowings by provinces and municipalities, strikes a familiar note this side of the border.

The need of American states and communities to meet their own growing pains has sent them into the money market here for funds in record volume. This has been a prime factor in swelling the demand for loans and in sending interest rates to 30-year highs. It also has increased the tax burden.

Praises Team, Coach

Last week I had the pleasure of watching Salem High School play Akron Hoban. I think that the boys played a fine game and are well-coached.

It was disappointing to me to hear some of the fans criticize several of the players for their play on the field and to criticize the coaching staff.

I personally feel that these fans should put on a uniform and go out and play the next game themselves, if they think that the boys and the coaches are not trying to do their very best on the field.

Hook Resigns At Armco Steel

Action Follows Heart Attack

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Charles R. Hook, who went to work for a small foundry in 1902 and helped create a giant of the steel industry, has stepped down as board chairman of Armco Steel Corp.

Hook, 79, made his move Monday from a Middletown Hospital bed where he has been recovering from a heart attack suffered two weeks ago.

Earlier in the day—over Hook's signature—Armco had released a report saying the firm's third quarter sales this year were off about 31 per cent because of the steel strike.

Hook's success story is also that of Armco, a firm that steadily expanded and streamlined its operations building specialty steel making into big business.

Hook is a Cincinnati native whose father, a buggy maker, went broke in a panic before the turn of the century.

That meant young Charley could not go to college, but he went to work as a $2 weekly office boy, took a course-by-mail in engineering and moved into a steel mill to learn how it was made.

By the time Hook was 22, George M. Verity, who founded the American Rolling Mill Co. here, offered him a job as night superintendent at $100 a month. The plant had only 325 workers then.

After a few rough years—financially—for the firm, Hook and Verity worked together on steady expansion.

Hook married the boss's daughter, Leah, in 1913. By 1920 he was vice president and general manager. The next year Armco reached out to buy Ashland, Ky. Iron & Mining Co.

He was president of Armco from 1930 to 1948 when he stepped up to the board chairmanship.

From the mid-30s on, Hook also found time to serve on a flock of federal advisory groups.

While he didn't get to college, he did pick up 11 honorary doctorates. Armco early began to set up scholarships—notably for Middletown students and teachers.

And Armco early got a name for good labor relations. Back in 1904, Hook had presuaded union officials to allow a plant superintendent to attend their meetings. It was part of his idea that both sides should know what the other is thinking.

He said six years ago, lecturing at the University of Pittsburgh, "take the mystery out of business. Mystery breeds suspicion.

"The vast majority of people have never grasped the real meaning of words like capital, surplus, gross earnings, depreciation and many other words descriptive of vital factors entering into present day business."

In recent years, Armco pioneered new methods to coat steel, to produce electrical steels and a new way of making stainless steel for missiles and space age jet planes.

Armco now is seventh biggest steel maker in tonnage and fourth largest in sales and profits. It has 35,000 employees.

American Rolling Mill changed its name to Armco Steel Corp. the year Charley Hook moved up to the board chairmanship.

After his action Monday, Armco directors adopted a resolution of appreciation for Hook's leadership and contributions to Armco growth.

No successor has been named.

But recent speculation was that if Hook resigned, President Ralph Larrabee Gray, 74, would succeed him, and Logan Truax Johnston, 60 executive vice president, would move up to the presidency.

Wolfgang-Sigmon Wedding Is Event In N. Carolina

Wilford Wallace Wolfgang of Leetonia and his bride, the former Jane Vordelia Sigmon of Salisbury, N.C., will reside in Burlington, N.C., after a wedding trip to eastern West Virginia.

The couple's marriage took place Oct. 18 at 4 p.m. in the Macedonia Lutheran Church in Burlington. The Rev. William F. Milholland, pastor of the church, officiated, and traditional nuptial music was provided by the church choir and the organist, Fred Sahlmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Edwin Sigmon of Newton, N.C., are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. George R. Wolfgang of Leetonia and the late Mr. Wolfgang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a wedding gown of lace and bouquet taffeta. A wide band of lace insertion underlined the modified boat neck line of the basque bodice designed with long calla point sleeves. The lace tieres of the bouffant skirt cascaded into a sweep train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of pointed sequin leaves. She carried a white prayer book topped with American Beauty rosebuds and a white carnation.

Mrs. Harold Sheppard of Burlington was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of American Beauty velvet and carried a colonial nosegay of happiness roses.

Kathy Jane Sheppard, a niece of the bride, and daughter of the matron of honor, wore a dress identical to her mother's. She carried a white net basket filled with rose petals and adorned with a spray of happiness roses on the handle.

Couple Reside In Lisbon After Oct. 17 Marriage

Residing at 377 E. Lincoln Way in Lisbon are Harvey E. Doyle III and his bride, the former Miss Nancy Kathryne DeVille, whose marriage took place Oct. 17 at 2 p.m. in St. George Catholic Church, Lisbon.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. DeVille of RD 3, Lisbon, while the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Doyle Jr. of RD 3, Salem.

The Rev. Fr. William Hohman officiated at the double ring ceremony. Two large baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli graced the altar. Smaller bouquets and two seven-branch candles holding lighted tapers were on the altar rail.

Miss Joann Klug presided at the organ and Tom McKenna was soloist.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace. It was designed with a Sabrina neckline sprinkled with sequins and seedpearls and long sleeves pointed at the wrists.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a queen's crown of sequins and seedpearls, and she wore a gift from the bridegroom, a small silver heart set with a pearl and matching earrings. Her cascade bouquet of white rosebuds was centered with a white orchid.

The matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore identical gowns of dark brown jersey with front panels of beige jersey edged with beige lace. Beige velvet hats completed their attire.

Mrs. Ray Plunkett of West Point, matron of honor, carried yellow mums. The bridesmaids, Jeanne Parker of East Palestine and Darlene DeVille of Lisbon, both cousins of the bride; Mary Ann DeVille, sister of the bride and Ruth Doyle, sister of the bridegroom, carried bronze mums.

Anton Zaplata of West Point was best man. Richard and Robert Doyle, cousins of the bridegroom; Albert Doyle, brother of the bridegroom; and Joseph DeVille, brother of the bride, ushered.

Mrs. DeVille was attired in a mocha lace dress with beige and green accessories, complemented by a yellow rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Doyle wore a dress of gray lace over pink with pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

Pink carnation corsages were worn by the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Agatha DeVille of Chicago and Mrs. George Reese of Scio.

The reception for 175 guests was held in the church hall. The refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a bride figurine and encircled with white pompons and huckleberry foliage.

Serving were Mrs. John Thoman of Chester, W. Va., Mrs. Bryan Pelley of Columbiana and Mrs. Harry Sambroak of Warren. Assisting were Mrs. Paul Reese of Warren and Mrs. Edward DeVille of Lisbon, both aunts of the bride.

For traveling, the bride wore a black plaid walking suit with red accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The Doctor Says

By HAROLD THOMAS HYMAN, M. D.

Benign Tumors Sometimes Become Villians

Every once in a while, a benign tumor of one of the glands of internal secretion decides to get into the act. It then adds its secretion to the secretion put out by the normal gland and that's when trouble begins.

Dr H. T. Hyman

When the secreting tumor is situated in the thyroid gland, you will most likely recognize it as a goiter. Your doctor will then have to decide what kind of goiter it is and what to do about it.

-:-

MOST GOITERS are not really tumors at all. There're merely enlargements of the normal gland resulting from deficiency of iodide in the soil and water of your neighborhood. Iodied - deficient areas are usually found away from salt water, which has abundant supply of this important element.

In the United States, the goiter belt used to be in the central states until it was discovered that the thyroid gland could be kept from enlarging by adding iodide to table salt, drinking water and animal feed.

If your goiter is not due to a simple iodide deficiency, it may be a true tumor. Then you doctor has to decide whether it's benign or malignant and, if it's benign, whether it's causing you enough trouble to require treatment by medical or surgical methods.

THE PROBLEMS that arise in glands you can't see are no different from those caused by the goiter, except that the swelling is not visible to you or your doctor. Hence it's more difficult to detect.

Benign tumors also cause problems when they develop the characteristics of malignancy. These precancerous growths, as they're called, are often located above the upper lip. Sometimes, they're recognizable by their appearance rather than their location, like the black mole or the shiny white plaques that appear in the mouth.

ONE OF the many good reasons you should have a health examination at least twice a year when you get older is to give your doctor the opportunity for recognizing these precancerous growths before they've had a chance to become killers.

Many of them can be destroyed by X-ray or radium before they get a chance to harm vital tissues.

Others are preferably cut out so that the pathologist is given tissue for study under the microscope. He'll then decide whether you're completely cured or whether you'd better have additional X-ray treatment to destroy any cancerous cell that may have been left behind.

Power's Widow Marries Producer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Tyrone Power's widow, Deborah Minardos Power, was married Monday to film producer Arthur Loew Jr.

It was the third marriage for Mrs. Power, 27, and the first for Loew, 33, often termed Hollywood's most eligible bachelor.

Power died of a heart attack in Spain Nov. 15, 1958. A son was born to his widow two months later.

Paralyzed Slayer Keeps Death Date

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) —The violent life of Frank Wojculewicz came to an end Monday night as he sat paralyzed, an invalid, in the electric chair.

For seven years he had lain in state prison, awaiting execution for the slaying of two men in a robbery in which he himself was shot in the spine. His appeals failed.

He was pushed into the death chamber in a wheelchair. Four guards lifted his wasted body and strapped him to the death chair which had been specially modified because his legs could not bend.

Electricity coursed through Wojculewicz for about two minutes. Then his body was taken away.

Thus ended the life of a 41-year-old man who was a juvenile delinquent at 10 and later a robber, thief, bootlegger, attempted rapist—and killer.

The crime that brought his execution was the slaying of Police Sgt. Walter Grabeck and a bystander, William Otipka, in a New Britain packing house robbery in 1951.

A police bullet injured his spine. He never recovered. He was convicted in 1952 as he lay in court on a hospital cot.

Boom Market In Treasury Bonds

It's Your Pocketbook

By FAYE HENLE

There is an area of service where the price has not soared and where the consumer still is treated like royalty.

I'm referring to the service rendered by financial institutions — commercial and mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations and the brokerage houses coast-to-coast.

You're well aware that in the past few weeks the U.S. Treasury placed almost half of its two-billion-dollar offering of bonds bearing a five per cent coupon to maturity in four years and ten months into the hands of little, thrift-minded investors like you and me. But unless you were one of those consumers that actually bought these bonds, you've little idea of what I'm talking about.

Unless you're "professional" in the money markets you've little perspective on how history-making this epic is.

IN RECENT YEARS no one can recall when the thrift institutions suffered such a reversal in their affairs. The promise of a 5 per cent return on savings — for this is largely where the little man generated the cash to buy these issues — struck a magical note and off he went, right or wrong, to participate in a possible bonanza.

He queued up at the window of his thrift institutions and withdrew his savings. He lined up at bank windows or beseiged his broker to see his U.S. savings bonds — and they did this for him gratis.

Nor, is there any record that he was ever turned away without cash, although in order to give him his monney the majority of thrift institutions suffered hardships. Many had to ssell their government bonds and some corporate issues in order to give the consumer cash. Already, in many instances short of money for such vital-to-the-economy needs as mortgage money, business loans and such, the bankers came across with cash, plus advice, plus wry smiles.

The wry smiles were an admixture of astonishment and admiration. These bear analysis.

In the cold climate of afterthought, some bankers question whether the treasury should design issues to compete with other savings media.

After all, in goodly sums, the government had to exchange issues on which it is paying a lower interest for those upon which it will pay more. Yet, these bankers grant, "the treasury has its operating problems, too."

-:-

EQUALLY IMPORTANT, the question has been raised: did every buyer of the new issue understand exactly what it was he was buying? And, how wise is he?

Liquid savings — and the liquidity got a big test, and passed — have now been transferred into a more speculative asset in order for the owner to hope to net a one and one-half per cent higher return.

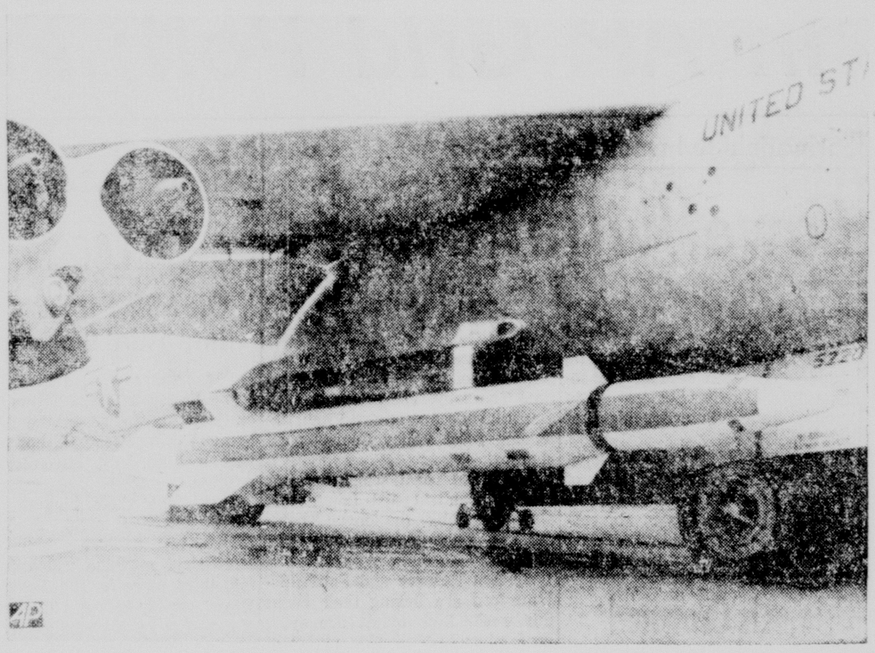

(Though the government issue quickly moved above the offering price pushing the return to some 4.7 per cent, no one can say whether it might not, at some time, fall below this original purchase price.)

What does this rush for a higher return reveal?

It opens to question whether the purchasers are as savvy as some believe. If a five per cent return is what the little man wants, he could have gotten this months ago, and can still get it, via the purchase of corporate issues or tax-exempt bonds. Of course, the safety factor is not as great.

The rush indicates the enormous forces psychology plays in the money markets. This is something no "investor" should ever forget.

But, it proves, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that faith in the U.S. dollar abounds despite the ravishes played upon it by inflation. And that is a good sign.

NEW MISSLE — This is the first photograph released for publication of the Air Force's new, two stage, research and developement rocket intended to test the feasibility of launching ballistic missiles from aircraft. The picture was released in Baltimore, Md. The missile is attached to fuselage of a B47 jet bomber. The first launching occured Oct. 13 when one of the missiles was fired over Cape Canaveral into the vicinity of Explorer VI satellite orbit.

Massillon Pads Lead In AP Grid Poll; Potters Still 8th

Alliance Moves Up to 14th; Quakers Again Picked 31st; Canfield In Tie for 37th

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Massillon's rain-swept muddy-field 70-0 massacre of Mansfield moved the Stark County Tigers into a commanding lead today in the weekly Associated Press high school football poll.

The score was the highest piled up by Massillon since Paul Brown's 1940 team swamped Erie (Pa.) East 74-0—and 46 sports editors responded by giving the Tigers a whopping 353 poll points, the year's biggest total.

Springfield's Wildcats, only 26 points back last week, fell to 83 off the pace despite a 38-0 win over Toledo Scott.

Only two changes in the Top 10 occurred this week. Troy's seventh-placers dropped far down the list although beaten only 8-0 by Kettering Fairmont's ninth-rated team which moved up to take the berth vacated by the Trojans.

Cincinnati Elder, which made its first appearance last week, in tenth place after beating defending champion Alliance, fell right out again as the Queen City crew was blasted 20-8 by Steubenville Central Catholic. The latter, winner of six in a row, came from nowhere to take ninth, while Cleveland East, another six-game winner, breezed into tenth.

Toledo DeVilbiss, 14-0 winner over Toledo Central Catholic, moved around Marion Harding into fourth place, just back of Lorain which defeated a good Sandusky squad 22-14. Warren Harding, which plays Massillon next weekend, retained sixth with a 29-8 win over Cleveland East Tech, and East Liverpool clung to eighth with a 22-0 victory over Struthers.

From Here and There

From here and there: Massillon quarterback Joe Sparma tossed 32 and 34-yard touchdown passes against Mansfield — the ninth straight game he's counted through the air. Massillon's Jim Wood carried four times for 164 yards, and Art Hastings made 181 in nine tries.

Joe Polshaw of Steubenville C. C., a 185-pound 6-2 quarterback rated by Coach John Baroni as the state's best, passed for one touchdown and scored two others in the win over Cincinnati Elder.

Little Hopedale has won 42 in a row at the six-man game. Alliance smother Akron Hower 74-0, and five of the 12 touchdowns were by second and third stringers. Bob Mackall, East Liverpool quarter, ran his touchdown total to 12 with a pair against Struthers.

The week's big scorer was Cleveland Holy Name's Jim Dudziak who counted fifth (50) points in the 84-0 romp over Cleveland Lincoln. Bill Kidd's New Philadelphia Quakers, after absorbing five straight losses, hit the winning side 16-12 over Canton Lincoln.

Springfield coach Lowell Storm has a 34-2 record for his three-plus years with the Wildcats. Back in 1951-52, as assistant to Jim McDonald, Storm helped coach the team to a 19-1 record. He came back last year as head coach and has a 15-1 mark. The lone loss was to Hamilton last year, coached by Lou Florio, and the latter is at the helm of Springfield's Friday foe, Hamilton Garfield (5-1).

Dayton Stivers punter Bruce Gordon had a tough time in the 52-0 loss to Mansfield Madison. Three times the center spiraled the football over his head on punt plays. The fourth time Stivers changed the method. The center passed the ball to quarterback George Calondis, who was supposed to lateral the ball back to the kicker. But Calondis missed, and again the ball sailed over Gordon's head.

Cardington has won 10 straight. In the last three it has scored 147 points, and senior Gary Crum and freshman Larry Coomer have counted all of them on touchdowns and conversions. Crum has 171 in six games this year.

Youngstown East's eight-game winning streak was halted 12-6 by Ursuline, which took over the city league lead with 4-0. Kettering really halted the Troy team which had rolled for 288 points in five games. Tommy Myers, Trojan quarter who had thrown 16 TD passes, completed only two of eight tosses, one for a two-yard loss. In the last four years Fairmont hasn't allowed more than one touchdown in any game—and it has given up only one this season.

Steubenville's Big Red won its first "road" game in three seasons by whipping Canton McKinley 15-0. Bobby Johnson, 135-pounder went 75 yards for one TD, and 200-pound Tom Cunningham went 11 for the other, his 11th of the year.

Toledo Scott was held to two first downs by Springfield.

Last April the high school board of control placed Washington C.H. and Greenfield McClain on probation for a year because of a fight following a basketbal, game. Friday night Commissioner W. J. McConnell and aide Paul Landis, will be dinner guests of the Greenfield school officials before McClain meets Washington C. H. on the gridiron.

Waverly (5-1) hastn't allowed a point in the five victories. And Salem, also 5-1, hasn't been scored on by an Ohio team—the lone loss being 14-0 to Ambridge, Pa.

Back in 1942 little Paulding High School of Paulding County had the state's scoring leader in fullback Bob Lucas, an All - Ohio first-stringer. The same school has another top-notch fullback in 180-pound Jerry DeLong, who has passed Lucas' 108 total with 116 points. He has piled up 890 yards on rushes and 171 on pass receptions, and tops the team in tackles and pass interceptions. The team is 6-0.

Marietta blasted Lancaster 26-0 for its ninth straight win, the school record. Paul Warfield of Warren scored 11 points in the win over East Tech, on a 45-yard touchdown run, a two-point conversion blast, and a 21-yard field goal—the latter Warren's first since 1950.

Marion Harding's Pete Porietis was the whole show in the 32-12 win over Findlay, scoring on runs of 4, 30, 5 and 6 yards and adding a conversion for 26 points.

Two Stark County games were settled by field goals Friday. Perry upset Glenwood 3-0 on Gary Nist's 25-yarder, and Lake nosed out Marlington 3-0 on a 27-yarder by Al Capuana. Martins Ferry, behind for the first time this year, rebounded with two Bill Brown second half touchdowns to beat Weirton, W. Va., 19-8 for its sixth straight. Weirton is defending Ohio Valley champ, but the Ferry team is now tops.

How They Stack Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Here's how 46 sports writers, 28 from newspapers and 18 from radio-television stations, rate Ohio's high school football teams this week. Shown are the first place votes in parentheses, the poll points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis, and the won-lost and scoring records of the leaders.

Springfield to Invade Columbiana

Lowellville Favored Over Goshen Union

The Lowellville Rockets are favored to cop their seventh consecutive Inter-County League game against Gosher Saturday night at Sebring.

Coach Ralph Zurbrugg's Gophers have the unenviable task of meeting a Rocket team which has yielded only 15 points in six contests.

Canfield, which has played four league games and won them all, plays out of the loop for the third time Thursday. The unbeaten Cardinals invade Austintown Fitch, defending Steel Valley Conference champs.

Springfield Local, which has lost only to Canfield and Lowellville, also plays out of the league Thursday at Columbiana against the Clippers.

Western Reserve and Fairfield - Waterford are licking their chops this week. Both teams are eying each other as their first victim of the season when the two basement dwellers collide Saturday at New Waterford.

In other games Saturday, Greenford should roll again against host Jackson-Milton and McDonald is favored to get back on the winning path at North Lima.

Jackson Milton will be playing without the services of fullback Ed Gorgie and halfback Bob Grove. Gorgie reinjured a knee in last week's game with Goshen. Grove suffered a dislocated shoulder and rib injuries.

Both boys are expected to be sidelined for the season, Coach Dave Kimmel reports.

Ole Miss Forges Into Third Place

By The Associated Press

The Louisiana Stage Tigers held on jealously today as the No. 1 team in college football, but theirs was a hazardous, uncomfortable position.

They face their biggest challenge Saturday night at Baton Rouge, La., against a high-flying Mississippi machine which forged into third place in The Associated Press' weekly poll and missed the No. 2 spot by the slender margin of 30 points—the equivalent of three first place votes.

In the game, LSU risks its proud position as national champion, holder of an 18-game winning streak and leader of the poll on 13 straight occasions.

Wayne Scores Shutout Over Salineville

In a game postponed from Saturday because of poor playing conditions, the Salineville Indians were shut out 6-0 Monday on their home field by Wayne High School.

The only score of the game came on a pass play in the second quarter. The Indians had numerous scoring opportunities but were never able to push the ball over the Wayne goal.

The muddy going turned the contest into a defensive battle. Wayne picked up only seven first downs and Salineville four. The winners inteceepted three passes while the Indians stole four.

The defeat was the fourth in six games for Dick Jones' Indians.

Their next contest is scheduled for Saturday at Newell, W. Va.

Lisbon, Leetonia to Tangle

Louisville to Invade Canton Thursday

Louisville's Leopards, who slid into first place in the Tri-County League last week with a big assist from Minerva, are assured of holding on to the top spot for at least another week.

The Leopards will be on the road Thursday to face Canton South, a non-league foe.

Five Tri-County League tilts this week are spread out over three days because of the teachers' convention in Cleveland Friday.

On Thursday Columbiana steps out of the league to play host to Springfield Local, the number three team in the Inter-County loop. The Clippers are 2-4 this season while Springfield has copped four of six games.

Although Columbiana is in sixth place, this fray is rated a toss-up since the Tri-County League is generally considered to be a tougher loop than the Inter-County League.

Coach Glenn Sutherin's surprising Minerva Lions, who proved to be giant-killers in knocking off defending champion East Palestine last week, should have a breather Thursday at Sebring against the winless Trojans. Sebring has dropped six consecutive games, giving up 220 points in the process.

Lisbon should rebound Friday at Leetonia against the Bears. The Blue Devils, with two losses, aren't having the season expected of them but the Bears are really hurting this year. They've managed just one victory and a tie in six games.

East Palestine, despite its upset defeat last week hasn't thrown in the towel. The Bulldogs have a date with league-leading Louisville next week. First though they must get by the Poland Bulldogs Saturday at Poland.

Poland with a 3-3 record is a high-scoring outfit but its defense leaves something to be desired. George Morris and company could cut them to ribbons Saturday.

Scholarship to be Awarded To All-Star Game Player

Players participating in the first annual all-star grid game Aug. 6 between Columbiana County high school stars and their counterparts from Beaver Valley, Pa., will be competing for a college scholarship.

Officials of the East Palestine Junior Chamber of Commerce, the sponsors of the game, announced today that a scholarship fund will be set up with proceeds from the annual event.

The award will go to the player voted most outstanding in each game. The amount of the first scholarship has not been determined.

The 25-man squads will be selected by participating coaches. Twenty-two players and two alternates will be selected for each team.

Players for the 1960 contest, which will be staged in East Liverpool, will report for training on July 25. The Toronto Band Camp near Toronto will be the training site.

Only seniors who were graduated the year of the game will be eligible to compete.

Coaches for the first tilt will be selected by press and radio-TV men and participating coaches at a meeting Nov. 30, according to Mel Smith and Dave Crum, co-chairmen of the event.

A queen contest is also planned. Each Columbiana County and Beaver Valley high school will be asked to nominate a candidate for a queen. Two queens will reign at the event, one from each state.

Question: Is it regulation to use lime to mark off football fields? Also, I would like to know the longest passes ever made in college and professional football, and by whom. By this I mean the distance in the air, not the yardage made on the play. — Dan A. Norby.

Answer: National Collegiate Athletic Association regulations specify, "All lines shown must be marked with a material which is not injurious to the eyes or skin." At one time lime was widely used, but it was slaked — a process which renders it harmless. Now there are several comercial white powders on the market which are used in practically all field markings.

There are no accurate figures on distances passes have traveled in the air.

Q. Whatever became of Howie Odell, who coached Yale, and his younger brother, Bob, who played at Pennsylvania? — Andrew Johnson.

A — Howie operates a dance studio in Tacoma, Wash. Bob is head coach at Bucknell.

Q. Is it legal for a player to tape his hands? — Seymoud See.

A. No, not unless it is used to protect an injury.

Harshman Still Leads In Tackles

Phillis Edges Schmauch by 1 Yard In Total Gained Rushing

Fred Phillis' sparkling offensive show for the Quakers against Wellsville Friday elevated him ahead of fullback Pete Schmauch in team ground gaining honors for six games.

The slippery halfback rolled through the mud for 118 yards in 18 carries against the Tigers to put him one yard ahead of Schmauch for the season. Phillis, the Mr. Outside of the Salem attack, has accounted for 601 yards on the ground. Schmauch, Mr. Inside, has ground out an even 600 yards in the sizzling battle for rushing honors.

The Quakers, who have registered five shutouts in six games, have limited their opposition to an average of fewer than 100 yards per game. This means that both Phillis and Schmauch have averaged more yardage per game than the entire backfield of the opposing teams.

Wellsville managed to pick up a total of only 48 yards through the air and on the ground against the Quakers. Their ground attack was just about stopped cold by the rugged Salem defense. It netted just 16 yards.

Guard Fred Harshman doggedly clings to his team lead in tackles. The junior hustler chalked up four more stops against Wellsville but Ron Janovec and Ned Chappell continue to press him. Harshman has 29 tackles, Chappell 27, and Janovec 26.

Janovec and Chappell are both linebackers on defense. Janovec has racked up many of his tackles from sheer speed on covering punts and kickoffs.

Phillis has begun to pull away with the scoring lead. His two touchdowns and four extra points last week ran his point total to 68. Schmauch is a distant second with 46.

There's little doubt but what Schmauch's improved blocking and faking performance against Wellsville gave Phillis a bigger assist than he has been accustomed to in keeping tacklers off his back.

AL Is Ready To Accept Expansion

NEW YORK (AP) — A revolutionary expansion plan may be in the works in the major leagues, The Associated Press has learned.

According to an authoritative source, this is the proposed plan:

1. The expansion-minded American League is seriously considering a 10-team format in the near future, possibly even next year. Two new franchises, Minneapolis and New York would be added.

2. The new franchise in New York, already American League territory, then would be offered to the National League in exchange for either Pittsburgh or Philadelphia.

This ambitious plan faces many problems, however. The biggest is to get the status quo-minded National League to accept the proposition. Unlike the American, which announced Monday it definitely is considering expansion, the National League is content to remain as is. The prospect of re-acquiring a franchise in New York might change the minds of some owners, however.

The American League plans to meet again Wednesday, ostensibly for a schedule meeting. It is conceivable the expansion committee may have something to announce then.

According to the AP informant, four AL teams favor the interleague exchange idea — Washington, Cleveland, Detroit and Chicagom It takes six affirmative votes to make any kind of a franchise change.

Should the plan become a fact, the American League, the source said, would permit the Washington Senators to move to Minneapolis but would retain possession of the Washington franchise and put another team in the nation's capital.

The National League New York entry would play its home games at Yankee Stadium, as tenants of the Yankees.

CARNIVAL By Turner

"Daughter's young man is a quiet chap, isn't he? I'd hardly know he was here if I couldn't see that empty roast beef platter!"

Bass Population In Beaver Creek Up 200 Per Cent

The results of an Ohio Division of Wildlife bass population survey on Beaver Creek in Columbiana County show a 200 per cent increase over a similar survey carried out in 1958.

More than 70,000 square feet of water, about one and one half acres, on various stretches of the streams were surveyed. A total of 135 smallmouth and 116 rock bass were caught during the two-day project. They were taken through the use of electrodes placed in the stream, which stunned the fish, and made them easy to pick up. They were counted, some tagged and all returned to the creek.

The average increase in size over fish caught and tagged during the 1958 program was approximately one inch. Bass habitat along Beaver Creek has been improved over the past few years by efforts of fish management personnel from Ohio Wildlife District No. 3 office in Akron. This has been accomplished by the installation of rock dams, deflectors and cover devices.

Deflectors are rock, log or earth obstructions built so as to deflect the natural flow of the stream. This is done to create pools, keep the stream from undercutting banks and furnish other natural water conditions more adaptable for bass populations. Cover devices are created from rocks or logs to furnish underwater areas where the bass can hide.

One bass caught in this area had been originally tagged in 1956. It had measured 5 inches at that time. This year it was 11 inches, an increase of 5.25 inches.

"The number of fish counted in Beaver Creek," says Dan Armbruster, fish management supervisor for District No. 3, "indicate a good population and makes it apparent that construction of habitat devices there are proving their worth."

Booster Club Session Set In High School

The regular weekly business meeting of the Salem Booster Club will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the high school instead of in the Memorial Building.

The Boosters will meet in Room 140 which is the first room on the left when entering from the 6th St. entrance.

A. P. Schmauch, Booster president, reports that he has named the following members to the nominating committee for the annual elections which will be held Nov. 19; George Daily, John Sabo, Martin Debnar, Peter Lambert and Fred Cope.

The committee will present its nominations at the Nov. 12 meeting. Schmauch reminds members that they must be present to vote the following week.

Parking Lot Improved At Salem Golf Club

Recently completed improvements at the Salem Golf Club include an enlarged black - topped parking area for members.

A total of 44,000 square feet of additional parking area was provided by Robert Campf, contractor, after the old house which stood at the entrance way was torn down. A new south exit has been provided.

Campf is proceeding this week with the widening and deepening of the creek which runs through the No. 5 fairway to prevent erosion of a bank near the green.

Privacy Suit Is Filed by Pole Vaulter

CLEVELAND (AP)—An internationally known pole vaulter asked $500,000 for alleged invasion of privacy of a suit filed Monday in Common Pleas Court against nine Ohio television stations and the Ford Motor Co.

Donald Laz, 30, of Urbana, Ill., claimed the defendants invaded his privacy by running pictures of him in commercials on the Ed Sullivan show and in newscasts without his knowledge or consent.

Named defendants were the Ford Motor Co. office in Cleveland, the Dispatch Printing Co. of Columbus, owner of a television station, and TV stations WJW of Cleveland, WKRC of Cincinnati, WSPD of Toledo, WHIO of Dayton, WINA of Lima, WSTV of Steubenville, WKBN of Youngstown and WHIZ of Zanesville.

Laz represented the University of Illinois in intercollegiate competition and has participated in the Olympics. He has appeared n Knights of Columbus track meets here.

He said in his petition that he has refused to "debase or commercialize" his standing as an amateur athlete.

He claimed the defendants on Oct. 26, 1918, showed a film of him in one of his athletic events without his knowledge or consent and that the sole reason for running the film was for advertising Mercury automobiles.

His petition stated he protested the use of the film to the Ford Motor Co. by letter on Nov. 6, 1958, but the defendants exhibited the advertising film at a later date on another program.

Pair Burned To Death In Secluded Road

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A railroad crew discovered an automobile in flames in a secluded West Side lane Monday night and firemen called found the charred bodies of a local man and woman inside.

The car is registered to Melvin L. Kessler, about 45. Papers in a partially burned purse carried the name of Mrs. Maxine Lea, 45. Police said the victims apparently are Kessler and Mrs. Lea.

The coroner, Dr. Robert A. Evans, said the cause of death for both was suffocation, "in all probability accidental."

Investigators said evidence indicates the blast-like fire was touched off by a build-up of fumes from two open, nearly empty cans of paint thinner.

The car windows were rolled up and the doors locked, and officers said they think someone may have lighted a cigarette, setting off the fire.

Kessler as a painter in the body shop of a local automobile dealer. Mrs. Lea is listed as a buyer for a local department store. Her husband is a post office employe. Kessler's wife also works for the department store.

Sprinkling Gets Woman Probation

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It was a hot July day when Isabel Hernandez, 63, boarded a bus with a garden hose—and started sprinkling the passengers and driver.

Monday she told municipal court the reason. The bus line, she said, ends in front of her house. For years passengers have been throwing transfers and other trash on her lawn—and taunting her when she complained.

Last July 31 transfers, trash and taunts got too much for her. So she stopped watering her lawn and started on the bus.

She pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace. The court let her off with a year's probation and a stern warning to restrict her sprinkling to the lawn.

Mistrial Declared In Compensation Case

LISBON — A mistrial was declared late Monday morning in the case of the B. F. Goodrich Co. of Akron against Chalmer P. Wylie, administrator of the Industrial Commission of Ohio, and Dorothy Jane Erwin of Youngstown.

The suit invorves compensation payments to the widow of Ancel C. Erwin, 31, of Youngstown who was killed June 16, 1954 in a one-car accident on the Unity-East Palestine Rd. Erwin was a salesman for Goodyear at the time, but the firm contends his widow is not entitled to death benefits because Erwin wasn't on company business when the accident occurred.

The plaintiff's attorney requested the mistrial after counsel for the defendant incorporated details of a former trial in his opening statement.

Salem, Carrollton Camera Clubs to Meet

Salem Camera Club members will be hosts to Carrollton Club members at a meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Building.

The guests will compete with the local members in color competition in all categories.

County Group To Attend Farm Session

LISBON — A group of county residents will attend the 40th anniversary meeting of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation Nov. 9-11 at Columbus.

Attending will be Galen Greensen of Salem RD 3, Howard Blanchard of Kensington RD 1, Herbert Frischkorn of Wellsville RD 1, Richard Denny and Mr. and Mrs. Arlan Hoopes, Beloit RD 2, and Maurice Menner of England, a Farm Bureau exchange student staying at the Lawrence Smith farm, Beloit RD 2.

A decline of 10 per cent in this year's farm income has aroused more than usual interest, and the farm commodity discussions at the meeting have been streamlined so farmers can examine marketing problems more closely.

The nearly 1,500 farmers expected will spend more time in general sessions, but will also hold group meetings according to the farm products they grow, D. R. Stanfield, executive vice president, said.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle will speak to the convention Nov. 10. Dr. Willard F. Mueller of the department of agricultural economics, University of Wisconsin, will be the main speaker for the commodity day sessions, Nov. 9.

Other speakers include Mrs. Haven Smith of Nebraska, vice president of the Associated Country Women of the World; Murray D. Lincoln, president of the Nationwide Insurance Companies, and Kenneth Hood, assistant secretary of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

The farmers will write their 1960 Ohio Farm Bureau platform Wednesday, Stanfield said.

DiSALLE VOTES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Local politics in Toledo apparently still interest Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, who served in several municipal offices there. The governor maintains voting residence in Toledo, and Monday filled in an absentee voter ballot for the Nov. 3 municipal election there.

AUTO HITS HOLE

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — What may have been a Halloween prank had serious consequences here, police said. A barricade around a 7-by-8-foot excavation about 10 feet deep, was removed Monday night, officers said, and a car driven by Mrs. Lelah Ranja of Cridersville (Auglaize County) plunged into it. She was treated for cuts.
